

Graduate Attribute

- 1) Competent nursing-care provider for general & specialist care who possesses strong foundational knowledge and skills to provide patient-care
- 2) Nursing care provider who is able to apply their knowledge, skills, critical thinking and decision making skills to provide high quality patient care
- 3) Researcher with aptitude and skills to conduct high quality research to advance nursing care for patients and nursing as a profession
- 4) Counselor for patients and their families, communicator with colleagues and community, showing empathy and professional respect
- 5) Ethical practitioner in conduct of research, patient care accountability towards community and profession
- 6) Efficient leader and collaborator to provide holistic patient-care and health services as a Nurse Leader/Co-ordinator /Nurse Manager/ Administrator/ Nurse Educator & an Advocate of best nursing practices
- 7) Socially conscious and responsible, recognizing and responding to community problems & needs for improved nursing care
- 8) Committed towards eco-conservation and sustainability practices through professional work
- 9) Practitioner of lifelong learning and evidence-based practice to provide highest standard of nursing care and education

Dr. Khurshid Jamadar
Principal

Dr. D. Y. Patil College of Nursing

Dr. K. S. Jamadar
Principal

S.No.	Graduate Attribute	Program Outcome
1.	Professional with strong foundational knowledge of principles of the discipline and its role in healthcare system	 PO1 - Knowledge & Skills
2.	Professional who applies knowledge of the discipline to critically analyse, plan, solve problems and make decisions	 PO2 - Planning and Problem-solving Abilities
3.	Communicator with empathy towards patients/clients/ respect professional colleagues and members of healthcare system	 PO3 - Communication
4.	Researcher with aptitude to conduct research that creates high quality evidence to inform practice of the discipline and advance knowledge of the discipline and profession	 PO4 - Research Aptitude
5.	Professional behavior with colleagues and ethical practice in research and patient care	 PO5 – Professionalism & Ethics
6.	Leader, collaborator and member of healthcare teams including with trans-disciplinary professionals	 PO6 - Leadership
7.	Socially responsible, sensitive to societal problems, active in community service to improve care and benefit society	 PO7 - Societal Responsibility
8.	Environmentally responsible attitude and supports sustainability practices.	 PO8 - Environment and Sustainability
9.	Lifelong learner to achieve high quality in teaching, research and patient-care	 PO9 - Lifelong Learner